The 2020 - 2026 Dietary Guidelines for Americans (from the US Department of Health and Human Services and US Department of Agriculture, dietaryguidelines.gov/resources/2020-2025-dietary-guidelines-online-materials) offers information about calorie needs, healthy and unhealthy fats, safe ways to lose weight, recommended physical activity, and other resources for maintaining health through a variety of life stages. Quick, easy tips for making healthy diet choices are also available at ChooseMyPlate.gov.

Nutrition Facts may vary because of slight variations in portion size or preparation, changes in growing seasons, or differences in ingredient sourcing. We strive to keep this chart as current as possible, and it was last updated to include all standard menu items as of August 15, 2024. 2,000 calories a day is used for general nutrition advice, but calorie needs vary.
